(c) if so, to what extent?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS AND THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF INFORMATION AND BROADCASTING (SHRI SUBODH KANT SAHAY): (a) Fire is a State subject and the figures on loss of life and property due to fire are maintained by State Governments and Municipalities under whom fire services function. There is no single agency in the country maintaining figures on fire losses. However, the Loss Prevention Association of India estimated that loss of property due to fire in 1986 was Rs. 1000 crores.

(b) and (c) Fire being a State Subject modernisation of fire management is the responsibility of the State Govt. However, for modernisation of fire Service the Central Government has arranged loans to the tune of Rs. 15 crores per annum for the State Governments from General Insurance Corp. of India. In addition to this lapanese financial assistance has also been arranged by the Central Government for modernisation of fire fighting arrangements of Bombay, Calcutta, Madras and Kanpur.
